

Free financial education materials for all clergy in 2019

As part of our Area's Lilly Grant initiative, we are now able to offer free (up to $150 value) educational materials for all clergy currently under appointment for at least one year! (New clergy receive their free materials at orientation.) The two approved choices and directions are listed below.

If you would like to choose another option, please contact Diane Owen at diane.owen@dkmnareaumc.org to obtain reimbursement guidelines before making a purchase.

Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University

Any pastor currently serving under appointment at least one year may receive free financial education materials from daveramsey.com up to $150 per pastor. Consider your current financial education goals and select from the following options:

- (Recommended) FPU Leader Bundle ($149) includes an extra Annual Membership. This option would allow a pastor to use the annual membership personally and pass the Leader Membership to a volunteer to coordinate the class should the pastor wish not to lead. These materials are available in a digital and DVD/printed format.
- FPU Leader Membership ($99) allows the pastor to engage in the course individually while or before they lead it. The Leader Membership cannot be passed to another person. Pastors purchasing the FPU Leader Membership will receive the DVD lessons/printed materials and access to stream the digital video lessons.
- FPU Individual Membership ($99) provides a membership for the pastor to complete the FPU coursework independently. Individuals purchasing the FPU annual membership will receive the printed workbook and access to stream the digital video lessons.

To receive free Financial Peace University materials, contact Diane Owen, Lilly Grant Area Program Director, at diane.owen@dkmnareaumc.org. Provide your name, church(es), shipping address, and contact information). No payment is required and your materials will be shipped directly to your address of choice.
