Calendar Overview: Dakotas & Minnesota

- ❑ The NPCL program begins with an in-person, gathering July 6-8 at Dakota Wesleyan University, Mitchell, SD.
- ❑ From July 8-August 15th pastors will get familiar with the learning management system (Canvas), engage in project planning techniques for their first applied project and establish coaching expectations and routines.
- ❑ The first 8-week course begins on August 17th with a one week break between the 1st (Financial Stewardship) and 2nd (Human Resources) courses, a break from Dec. 13-Jan. 18 to accommodate Advent, and a one week break between the 3rd (Vision & Strategy) and 4th (Communications) courses.
- ❑ Pastors will gather in person January 11th and 12th, in either MN or the Dakotas, where they will deliver presentations about their first applied project, participate in workshops, and network with their colleagues.
- ❑ Eight-week, online classes, will conclude May 16th.
- ❑ From May-16th-July 11th, pastors are expected to connect with their coaches, finalize any undone project work, complete an assessment of their project(s), and prepare for the final presentations and gathering. This is a busy time for pastors due to end of school year, Annual Conference, summer camps, VBS, and summer vacations. This time will be self-directed by the pastor in order to accommodate her/his schedule.
- ❑ The final gathering will be July 12th & 13th at Dakota Wesleyan and will include a certificate ceremony in addition to final presentations, meeting peers from the incoming cohort, and more.
