Prayers

Opening Prayer

Holy and loving God, breathe Your Spirit upon us so that in our worship we may grow in perfect love. Form our hearts to love You fully, our minds to seek Your truth, and our lives to reflect Your compassion. Teach us the way of holiness: love lived out in prayer, mercy, justice, and community. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

-Written by Beata Ferris with help from ChatGPT

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

-From The Book of Common Prayer (New York: Church Publishing, Inc., 2006), 235.

O God, you are our God and we come as your people on earth. Gather us in, that we may remember the ties that bind us together in your love. Write your law upon our hearts, that others may find us to be generous and loving friends. Strengthen us by your Spirit, that we may live in love—a love that transforms our lives even as we help to transform the lives of others. In the hope of your miraculous love, we pray. Amen.

-Written by Mary J. Scifres, Abingdon Worship Annual 2012.

Prayer of Confession

Lord, you have told us what to do. But this love thing is hard. You've invited us to love you with everything we have; instead we have fallen in love with our jobs, houses, and electronic toys. Loving you intimately is scary, and we often opt for another way. You've invited us to live in loving relationship with everyone we encounter, but there are folk who are downright hard to love. We confess our inability to love as we should. We need your forgiveness and help living out this love thing. Free us to love as you do. Amen.

-Written by Lillian C. Smith, The Africana Worship Book, Year A (Nashville: Discipleship Resources, 2006), 150.

Pastoral Prayer

Faithful God,

Your love is the foundation of our lives.

We thank You for loving us before we could love You and for calling us into the way of holy love.

Strengthen us to love those who are difficult to love.

Heal relationships that are strained.

Restore those whose spirits are weary.
Teach us to see every person as Your beloved child.

We pray for our community—
for those who are lonely, sick, grieving, or anxious.
We lift up caregivers, teachers, medical workers,
and all who serve with compassion.
We pray for peace where there is conflict, justice where there is oppression,
and hope where there is despair.

Shape our church into a community of love that welcomes the stranger, comforts the hurting, and practices mercy.

Trusting in Your great faithfulness,
we join our voices with Christians everywhere as we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven... (Lord's Prayer)

Receive these gifts, O God, and use them to extend your grace, embody your mercy, and reveal your love through us. We dedicate all that we are and all that we have to your purposes. Children's Message

-Written by Beata Ferris with help from ChatGPT

Object: A heart-shaped pillow or paper heart.

Message: Today Jesus teaches something very important: the greatest thing we can ever do is love. Not just sometimes... not just people we already like... but everyone God loves—and that's everybody! This heart reminds us that God's love is big, wide, and never-ending.
Love isn't just a feeling—it's something we do. Love is an action!

Interactive moment:

Let's think of some actions we can do to show love this week—maybe helping at home, sharing with a friend, or encouraging someone who feels left out. (Invite children to name ideas aloud.)

Repeat-After-Me Prayer:

Dear God,
Thank You for loving me.
Help me love You.
Help me love others.

Help me love myself.
Make my heart more like Jesus. Amen.

Prayers

Opening Prayer

Living Christ, You call us to go into the world and make disciples. Fill us with boldness and compassion, rooted in practices of prayer, study, and holy living. Empower us by Your Spirit that our lives may witness to Your saving grace. Amen.

-Written by Beata Ferris with help from ChatGPT

Holy God, Three in One, you are our eternal hope, our companion in life, our liberating power. Lead us in your mission, baptizing and teaching in your blessed name, so that all may worship you to the end of the age. Amen.

-From "Prayers for Trinity Sunday," Presbyterian Mission (PCUSA),

<https://www.presbyterianmission.org/resource/prayers-trinity-sunday>

Jesus, our Savior, in response to your call to be your faithful disciples, we are baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Open our lives and teach us how to follow your great commission to make disciples of all nations, to baptize and teach them your ways. Let us know the full blessings of our God-Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

-Written by Robert Blezard, Abingdon Worship Annual 2008

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we confess our sin, which separates us from you. We know how people who belong to you should live, but we fail to live that way. At times we have forgotten that we bear your image and have done evil. At times we have forgotten to live in response to your sacrifice for us and have acted selfishly. At times we have ignored the voice of your spirit speaking to our conscience, and we have followed the desires of our own heart. As a result, we have lived for self rather than for you or our neighbor, our lives have been diminished, our witness has been stifled, and your image within us has been tarnished. Forgive us, good Lord, through Jesus Christ. By your Spirit, guide us to live as people who know and love you. Amen.

The Lord, who saves you, says: I am the God who forgives your sins; I do this because of who I am. I will not hold your sins against you. Let us praise the triune God:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Risen and living Christ,

you meet us, your disciples with our doubts present and hope rising, and you offer mercy that steadies us and love that sustains us. We thank you for your promise to be with us always.

Where we feel uncertain or afraid, speak your peace. (pause)

Where we are weary or wounded, bring your healing. (pause)

Where guilt, shame, or broken relationships weigh heavy on our hearts, offer forgiveness and teach us to forgive as we have been forgiven. (pause)

Send us out in your name, O God, not in our own strength, but covered in your grace.

Make us people who bear mercy into places of hurt, who work for reconciliation, and who live as signs of your peace in a restless world.

We lift before you those who are sick or grieving,

those who are lonely or burdened,

those who long for justice, safety, and hope.

Hold them close, surround them with care, and use us as instruments of your compassion.

Trusting in your abiding presence and guided by your Spirit, we place our lives, our church, and our world in your hands.

And now, with one voice and one heart, we pray the prayer Jesus taught us, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven... (Lord's Prayer)

Prayers

Opening Prayer

God of justice and mercy, speak to us through Your Word so that we may grow in holiness of heart and life. Shape our discipleship through practices of mercy, service, and holiness. Make us agents of compassion and justice. In Jesus' name. Amen.

-Written by Beata Ferris with help from ChatGPT

Oh God, Our Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer-

How do we thank you? How do we show our gratitude? Do you want signs and sacrifices?

Do you want gold and cattle? Can we turn over our children to you? Would that repay our debt, make everything right? Tell us, what do you require in return for all your goodness?

Oh God, Our teacher, example, companion—You have shown us what is good, and call us to remember that what you require is not repayment of debt or settling the score, but obedience. Show us, God, When to do justice, how to love kindness, and where to walk, humbly, with you. Amen.

L: Micah reminds us that our prayers, fasting, and pious ritual must be lived out in compassion and justice: When we forget the fast you desire—To do justice, and rise up for the powerless:

P: Lord, have mercy.

L: When we forget the prayer you love—To show compassion and care for those in need:

P: Christ, have mercy.

When we forget the rituals you require—To create relationships of righteousness and peace:

P: Lord, have mercy.

Words of Assurance for Grace and Peace

L: Friends, the love of God revealed in Jesus forgives us, heals us, and sets us free to rebuild, restore, and raise up foundations for new generations. Amen.

A Prayer Based on Micah 6:8

Give us, o Lord, an eye for injustice.

For it is only when we are able to recognize injustice and feel its awful sting that we will be moved to make things right.

Give us, o Lord, a tender heart.

Sometimes we are too hard-hearted to recognize when we have been uncaring, unfeeling, or unkind.

Grant us, o Lord the ability to view life from the dust.

All our lives we have been taught to make others proud, to be proud of ourselves, to hold our heads high – all the while missing the virtues of being poor in spirit.

Teach us dear Lord, to do justice, love kindness, and to walk humbly with you. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

God of justice, mercy, and humble love,
You call us to live out Your righteousness in the world.
Give us courage to seek justice where people are hurting,
to offer kindness where there is bitterness,
and to walk humbly in a world full of pride.

We pray for communities torn by violence,
for those oppressed or marginalized,
for people struggling with poverty or homelessness,
and for all who long for dignity and hope.
Strengthen all who work for justice—advocates, community leaders, counselors, and caregivers.

We pray for healing for the sick,
comfort for the grieving,
companionship for the lonely,
and rest for the weary.

Make our church a place where justice and mercy meet,
where love is lived daily,
and where Your presence is unmistakable.

With hearts seeking Your will,
we pray together the prayer Jesus taught us...

Our Father, who art in heaven... (Lord's Prayer)

We thank you, O God, for calling us into your church to be your people. “We have gathered, God of grace and wisdom, because we have heard your call. You have reached out to us in Jesus Christ; you have touched us with your Spirit, and we have turned toward you, seeking to love as we have been loved. We call upon your holy name: empower us to worship and serve you, walking gently on this earth, through the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

God, we do not understand Jesus, the prophet.
We do not want to get our hands dirty with the poor,
the oppressed, the prisoners.
Forgive us for being insulated and isolated.
Open our hearts to the poor and help us to love them as you love them, working to bring in the good news of the reign of God.
In Christ’s name, we pray. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
You came proclaiming good news to the poor,
release for the captives, healing for the broken,
and freedom for the oppressed.
Let Your Spirit rest upon us so that our words and actions proclaim Your kingdom.

We pray for those trapped in cycles of poverty,
for families facing insecurity,
for people battling illness of body or mind,
and for all who feel forgotten.

We pray for justice in our community,
for compassion in our relationships,
and for healing in our world.

Strengthen ministries that feed the hungry,
visit the sick, advocate for justice,
and bring hope to the despairing.
Make us partners in Your mission of liberation.

With trust in Your faithfulness,
we join our voices in the prayer You taught...

Our Father, who art in heaven... (Lord’s Prayer)

Unison Prayer of Thanksgiving/Dedication~ Could be used all four weeks of the series.

Gracious and Generous God,

You shape us to love you fully and to love our neighbors as we love ourselves. You send us out to share your grace with courage and humility. Help to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you. Strengthen us to proclaim the good news of Jesus and offer peace and hope to all.

Receive these gifts, O God, and use them to extend your grace, embody your mercy, and reveal your love through us. We dedicate all that we are and all that we have to your purposes. May our gifts make a difference in our communities and in the world beyond. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

Children's Message

-Written by Beata Ferris with help from ChatGPT

Object: A bandage or small first-aid kit.

Message: Jesus came to heal, help, and give hope. Just like a bandage helps a cut feel better, Jesus came to help people who were hurting inside and outside. We can be part of His good news by being kind, gentle, and helpful. We can offer help heal the hurts of people we know.

Interactive moment:

Ask the children: "How you can help or encourage or make someone feel better this week?" (Let them suggest some ideas.)

Repeat-After-Me Prayer:

Dear Jesus,

Thank You for bringing good news.

Help me help others.

Help me be kind.

Help me share Your love.

Amen.
