

GRANT APPLICATION – 2016
Warren Kuhler Memorial Grants for Dakotas United Methodist Local Church History
Dakotas Conference of The United Methodist Church
Commission on Archives and History

About these grants

These mission-initiative grants are available to local churches within the Dakotas Conference to assist in preserving their local histories and making their stories accessible to support their disciple-making, world-transforming mission.

Grant funding up to $500 per church will be awarded to no more than 5 local churches within the Dakotas Conference that undertake a project to preserve and/or make accessible their local church's history. To be eligible, the local church must elect a local church historian, if they do not already have one, and provide matching funds toward a project that will preserve the church's history.

Please indicate which, if any, other churches are represented by this grant application:

Does the church have a historian and/or history committee?

Please list name/s of historians and/or history committee members:

How long has the church had a historian and/or history committee?

If the church does not have a historian, what is the plan and timeline for electing a church historian?

Grant project proposal – description

Examples of eligible grant projects include, but are not limited to, the following:

Purchase archival supplies, software, attend workshops, receive training, compile a church history, create a historical display, etc.

Previous grant recipients used their funds to celebrate their church's milestone anniversary and preserve their church's history in a printed booklet.

If your church receives grant funds, how would you spend them? Attach an additional page, if necessary.

Grant project proposal – funding

Grant recipients are required to match the grant funding up to 100%. This means that a church receiving the full $500 grant would need to match that with a total of $500 in some combination of cash and in-kind contributions. This includes materials and services donated by others to the church for this project. This also includes using paid staff, as well as volunteers. To estimate the contribution of a volunteer's time, estimate the number of hours that volunteers will spend on the grant project and multiply those hours by an estimated hourly wage. For convenience, $10/hour is suggested.

Please describe, with some detail, your proposed expenditures to match the grant funds. Examples include purchases made with other sources of funding, staff time, etc. Attach an additional page, if necessary.

As the representative for the church applicant, I state to the best of my knowledge that the information in this application is true and correct, and if funded, the applicant will carry out the project in the manner described herein. The applicant will maintain records in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles, and will follow up with a report to the Dakotas Conference Commission on Archives and History explaining how the funds were spent and describing the project.

This report may be published in the Dakotas Conference online newsletter, Mondays@Dakotas, as well as the Dakotas United Methodist Historical Society's newsletter, News & Notes.

About Warren Kuhler

Warren Kuhler
1922-2013

Warren Kuhler, 90, died on Monday, May 20, 2013, at Wakonda, S.D. Funeral services were held on Saturday, May 25, 2013, at the United Methodist Church in Wakonda. Burial was in the Union Cemetery at Wakonda with military honors.

Warren George Kuhler was born on May 25, 1922, to George and Ellen (Buehler) Kuhler in Wakonda. He graduated from Wakonda High School, where he was active in music and sports. While a student at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, Warren enlisted in the U.S. Army and was called to active service in 1943. He took his Air Corps cadet training at Moorhead, Minn., and graduated as a second lieutenant from navigation school at San Marcos, Texas, and from flight engineering school at Amarillo, Texas.

While in the Fargo-Moorhead area, he met his future wife, Lillian Mae Hennings. They were married Feb. 14, 1945, at the American Lutheran Church in Fargo. After being honorably discharged from the U.S. Army Air Corps in 1946, he finished his education at Morningside College.

Warren worked the family farm at Wakonda for many years, except for two years at the Blue Mountain Dairy in Colton, Calif. In 1962 Warren became the director of the South Dakota United Methodist Foundation, where he served for seven years. In 1969 he became the administrator of the Pioneer Hospital and Nursing Home in Viborg, where he worked for 21 years. He was elected a fellow in the American College of Nursing Home Administrators in 1976, and in 1979 Dakota Wesleyan University awarded him with an honorary doctor of humane letters degree.

Warren's devotion to God was a priority in his life. He served as conference lay leader for the South Dakota Conference and was a member of the South Dakota Conference Committee on Archives and History and the Dakotas Conference Commission on Archives and History. He was a member of the Wakonda United Methodist Church, where he served as lay leader for 60 years.

He was a life member of the American Legion and active in the Wakonda community. He enjoyed singing in community groups, including a male quartet, as well as the church choir. Warren and Lillian enjoyed traveling and visited six continents and all 50 states during their retirement.

Warren is survived by three children: George Kuhler (and wife Deborah), of Huron, S.D., Margaret Peterson (and husband Stevan), of Wakonda, and Karen Trammell (and husband Jeff), of Sioux Falls, S.D.; six grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; his sister, Mary Ellen Rowley, of Sun City, Calif.; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Lillian, on April 19, 2013; and his brother-in-law, Herbert Rowley.
